

C.P. Loewen Enterprises Ltd. - Manufacturing Engineering Technologist

As a Manufacturing Engineering Technologist, you support operations and lead the introduction and implementation of new equipment and processes while continuously working to improve current state within the manufacturing plant.

Video - More than a Window

Duties:

- Lead task and project teams
- Participate in shop floor improvement projects, identifying tools and equipment to increase efficiency and capacity.
- Researching, specifying, ordering, implementing, performance testing, and championing the training for new production tooling and equipment.
- Preparing Capital Expenditure requests supported by savings and return on investment calculations.
- Creating and updating engineering drawings and layouts.
- Collecting and analyzing data to identify and justify improvement actions.
- Staying abreast of new technology, manufacturing practices, processes, and equipment
- Promote a continuous improvement culture within the organization.

Requirements:

- Hold a diploma in Industrial, Mechanical, or Manufacturing Engineering Technology Program.
- Strong attention to detail, organization skills, and ability to read/interpret engineering drawings.
- Strong interpersonal skills with an emphasis on customer service
- Strong root cause analysis problem solving skills
- Strong work ethic
- Proficiency in 2D/3D CAD, MS Word, Excel and Project

Assets:

- Holds a valid professional registration with CTTAM (C.E.T.)
- 2+ Years Experience
- Analytical thinker capable of "thinking outside the box"
- Strong mechanical aptitude
- Knowledge of basic electrical concepts
- Knowledge of cutting tools
- Knowledge or experience in mechatronics
- Paint / Coating application experience
- Continuous improvement accreditation in lean manufacturing, Six Sigma.

We thank all candidates for applying. Only those selected for interviews will be contacted.

Loewen is an equal opportunity employer and values diversity in our company.